Shaping children and youth through values present in our culture for centuries – engagement, diligence, good will and trust.

Many light years away, in outer space, the artificial asteroid SPACEBALL hosts the seat of the Interstellar Football Federation. It turns out that football is extremely popular not only on Earth, but also in the entire (even most distant) space. For millions of years every year the Galactic League Championships take place there, with the most developed civilizations calling up their teams to compete for the win. On Earth, of course, no one has a clue about the existence of interstellar football. Nobody, except for Robert Lewandowski and four kids who together create the Earth Representation.

SPACE KICKS

About the episodes in Series 1

THE FIRST EPISODES ARE ABOUT THE EARTH TEAM - HOW IT WAS FOUNDED AND THE MEMBERS GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER. THE GREAT REFEREE EXPLAINS WHAT GALACTIC FOOTBALL IS ALL ABOUT.

RL-9 (1)

Galactic Master League 9856 Finals, eliminations. The Presians and the Deflix are playing breaking all rules. The Great Referee decides to introduce a new team from the Earth to the League. He believes in a fresh new start to the galactic football. There we follow a few kids: Kong, Marisa, Irungu and Milan. All of them are fans of Robert Lewandowski.

THE TEAM (4)

Robert and his team arrive at Spaceball. When the children see the Great Referee, they all panic. They are afraid that they have been kidnapped by aliens. It is only after Robert shows up that the situation is resolved and both sides learn about one another. The kids also realize that they can understand one another although they speak different languages.

SPACEBALL (2)

Robert Lewandowski is playing a match. A ball appears on the field. When Robert is trying to kick it out, he disappears. Kong, Marisa, Irungu and Milan are bewildered by his disappearance. It turns out that Robert is teleported to Spaceball and invited to select the representatives for his team. His attention is caught by the kids.

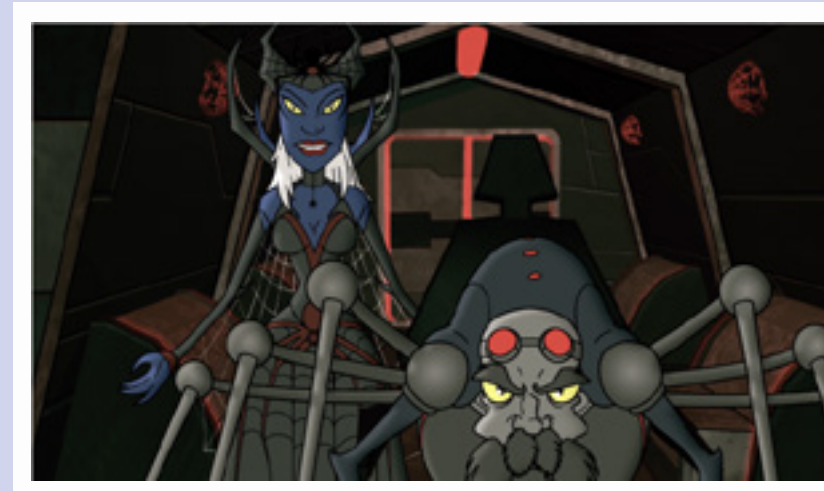

THE TEST (5)

The Great Arachna orders Birdie to shoot a spy probe to Spaceball. The Queen realizes that the Great Referee indeed invited a new team to the Space League. Meanwhile on Spaceball the kids are having their first match in space. They feel a bit strange to kick Droid Robi as a ball. Malgor as a goalkeeper seems to be unbeatable.

MEETING WITH THE IDOL (3)

Robert sets off on his mission to select best football players on Earth. He explains his mission to the kids and gives them space whistles - which enable teleportation to Spaceball. Meanwhile the Great Referee and Malgor are watching a game played by the Lokians. Robert and his team are approaching Spaceball.

FIRST ENCOUNTER (6)

The Earth team is preparing for their first league matches. The first encounters with their rivals are not too pleasant. The galactic football fans are gathering. They come in groups that do not seem to be very friendly towards each other. All of the sudden everyone is in panic because the invasion of... spiders.

SPACE KICKS

About the episodes in Series 1

AS RELATIONSHIPS ARE FORMED IN THE TEAM, ROBERT IS GETTING KIDNAPPED BY ARACHNA - AN ANCIENT ENEMY OF THE GALACTIC LEAGUE. THE KIDS RUSH TO RESCUE THEIR CAPTAIN.

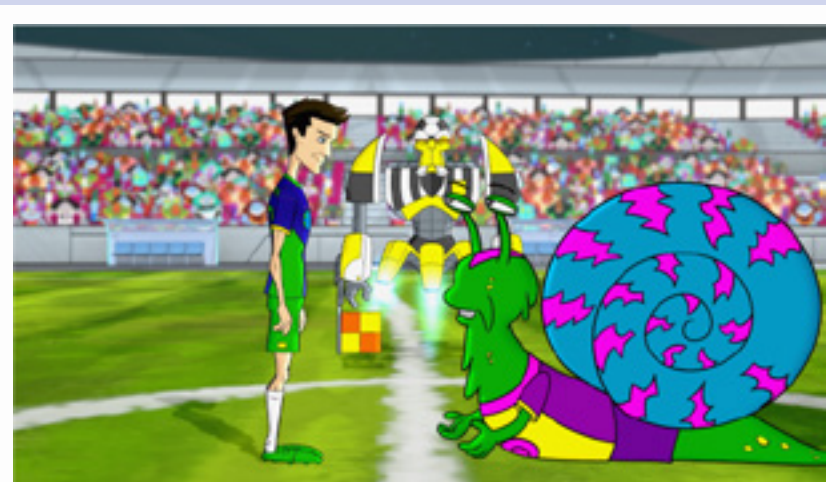

TRAINING (7)

Milan almost tells his mum all about Spaceball and football. The kids teleport to Spaceball and the Great Referee explains a few things about the Intergalactic Football Federation to them. The first team that is selected as rivals is from the planet Loko. The problem with the planet is that its gravitation is not stable. The kids play poorly until Milan gets the ball.

MEET YOUR CONTESTANT (8)

The Great Referee tells Robert about Queen Arachna. She pretended to be a football talent hunter, but soon it turned out that she was kidnapping the players. The Great Referee expresses his concern about the kids. Arachna may want to get them too. The kids are getting ready for their first match with the Snailors. Irungu finds it disgusting to play with snail-like aliens.

SPARING (9)

In order to prepare for the game Irungu puts a snail on his head but faints. Milan is trying to make some strategy for the game, but in vain. The Snailors play very slowly, they manage to disorient Robert's team completely. Irungu as a goalkeeper is helpless. The whole stadium is mocking the Earth team. This time Marisa is saving the match. Meanwhile Birdie replaces the droid referee's software.

KIDNAPPING (10)

Thanks to Marisa, the first half of the match is commented favorably for the Earth team. Malgor and the Great Referee are watching the droid referee kidnapping Robert. Robi decides to save Robert. In the last moment he manages to get to Arachna's airship moving away with Robert on its board. The kids follow, but are "imprisoned" in the spider nest.

NUKA (11)

Robi is shot into the orbit. He finds himself on Earth, next to Nuka's home, who is an Eskimo girl and a fan of Robert. Nuka recognizes Robi from his earlier visit with Robert Lewandowski. Robi asks Nuka to use her space whistle, go to Spaceball and try to help Robert. Meanwhile the Great Referee explains to the kids that Arachna holds organizes an Illegal Black League and wants Robert to play there.

"THE RESCUE TEAM" (12)

Malgor is trying to fix Robi. On the asteroid Tartar Birdie does his best to make Robert play in the Black League. The football fans are berthing their airship on Spaceball. The Great Referee makes a proposal that they should help them get to the seat of Black league and help rescue Robert. The Great Referee also invites Klara, Masza and Helga – fans from Spaceball - to join.

SPACE KICKS

About the episodes in Series 1

THE REUNITED EARTH TEAM FACES CHALLENGES RELENTLESSLY THROWN AT THEM BY ARACHNA – QUEEN OF THE BLACK LEAGUE.

INTO THE UNKNOWN (13)

Robi is already repaired and feels like brand new. The aircraft Raca 1 is ready for the rescue mission. It moves through space until they notice that they are being followed by three Black Widow airships. To rescue the mission Sztapun claims that the purpose of their visit is transport of players for the League. Arachna welcomes the visitors.

TURNING POINT (16)

Robert and the kids are just about to teleport to Spaceball. They are free to go, but in their place Masza, Smoothy and Sztapun will play in the Black League. The kids refuse to leave their friends behind and stay. We are watching the first unfair game of Black League. Robert will play in the next one. One-on-one with Arachna as his opponent.

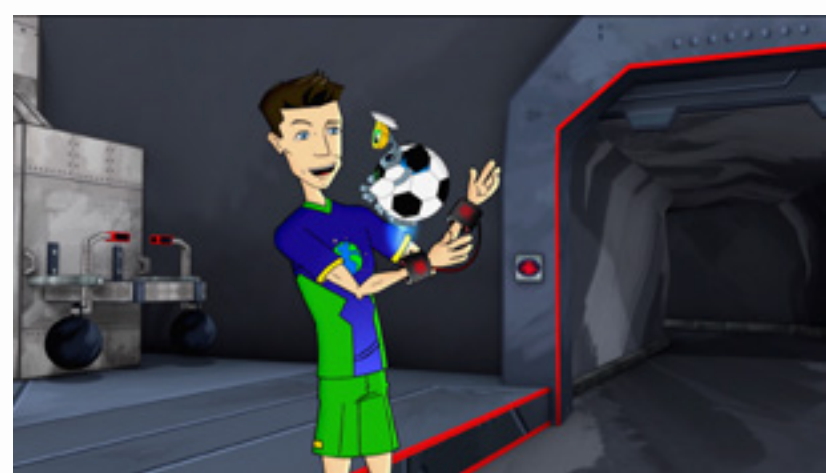

IN A SPIDER WEB (14)

Arachna realizes that the kids she wants are on board as they have come to rescue their captain Robert Lewandowski. On her order, kids are imprisoned in separate cells. Arachna announces to the Great Referee that his grand plan to rejuvenate the space league failed. Malgor is surprised to get a signal from Robi, who has managed to get to Tartar.

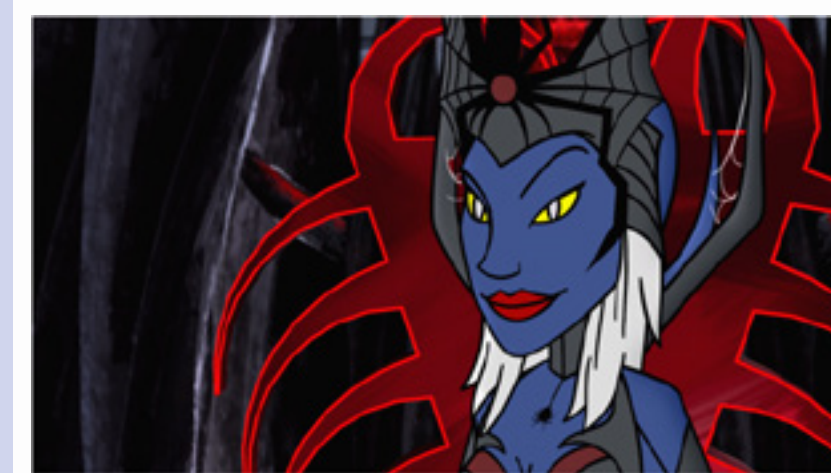

ONE-ON-ONE (17)

Arachna scores the first goal. When she tries to score the next one the ball is moving towards Robert. We see that it is Robi. Robert scores the next goal. The final score after the first half is one to one. The second half is supposed to be played according to Earth football rules. Arachna manages to score three more goals and wins the match.

SHACKLES DOWN (15)

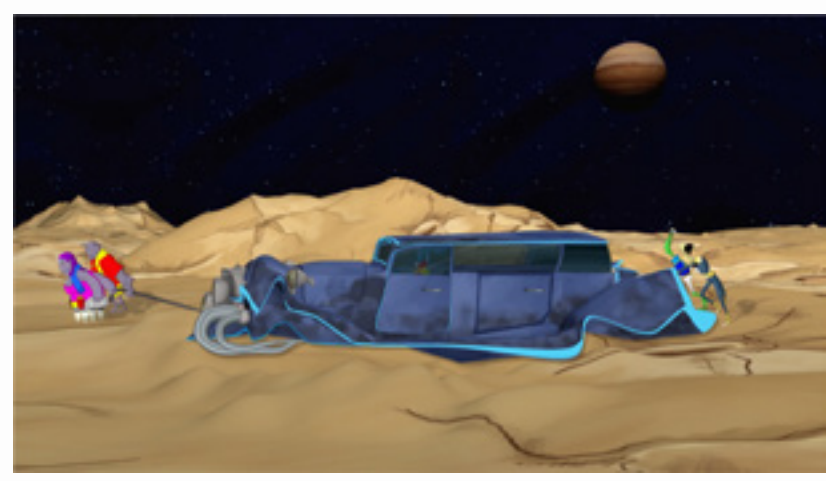

Robert is guarded by the Roughnecks. Robi manages to rescue him and convinces two Roughnecks, to help rescue the kids. Arachna commands to see the children. Her attention is drawn by the space whistles. Milan admits that they are teleportation devices. Robi and Robert finally spot the children. Robert manages to throw the space whistles to them.

LESSON (18)

Since the games in the Galactic Football League have been suspended, the eyes of all space inhabitants are directed towards the Black League. In the conversation with the Great Referee Arachna declares peace between the Great Referee and herself and invites him to be her guest of honor. Encouraged by peaceful declarations of the Queen, the Great Referee decides to go to Tartar.

ARACHNA USES HER TRICKERY TO TRAP THE GREAT REFEREE ON HER PLANET. SUBSEQUENTLY, THE TEAM IS CONFRONTED BY A GREAT REFEREE CLONE RUNNING ON SUPER-PLAYER SOFTWARE.

LION`S DEN (19)

Even given very hard rules, the kids win the game against the Roughnecks. Arachna greets The Great Referee and Malgor cordially on her planet, Tartar.

CHAOS (22)

The captains of Spaceball teams are going to play with the Earth team. Vesper discovers the secret of the cloned Referee and Malgor. The kids tactics for the game is to put the captains of different Spaceball teams against each other. The Great Referee decides that Robert is not part of this game, but the kids win even without Robert.

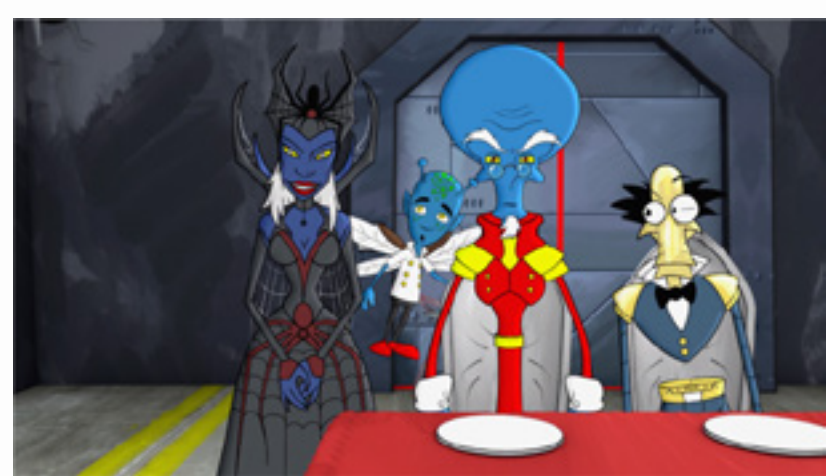

TARTAR SECRETS (20)

The dinner is served. Arachna claims that the main course is going to be larvas. It was a joke and they delicious pizza is served instead. The kids insist on meeting the chef. They get to know young Vesper. Everybody is surprised that the Great Referee and Malgor have not joined them yet. Arachna has a vicious idea to replicate the Great Referee's and Malgor's software.

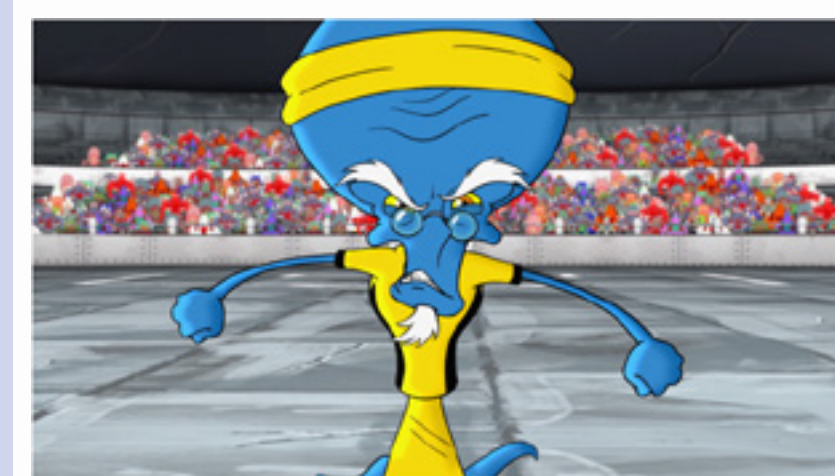

RESET (23)

Arachna is furious about the lost game. She decides to build another clone called a super-player. Robert and Vesper are trying to find out what has happened to the old Malgor. They manage to find the holographic recording in which Malgor explains how to restore him and the Referee. Meanwhile the hacked Malgor disappears unnoticed by anyone.

STOLEN SOUL (21)

The Great Referee and Malgor clones obey Arachna`s commands. Masza finds Malgor`s favorite toy in a trash bin. When Malgor does not recognize his toy, the kids know something is wrong. The clone of the Great Referee announces the team for the next game. Robert and the kids are surprised as he has always claimed that he would never allow the Spaceball teams to play in Black League.

RESTART (24)

The super-player clone is boasting that he is going to win the game. Robi and Robert are restarting Malgor`s system according to the instructions he left in his hologram recording. When Malgor is restarted, he is in heaven to see his favorite toy elephant. The restarted genuine Great Referee makes it impossible for his own clone super-player to win the game.
